

Only one step to take to enjoy the matchless view from Samui coast. Not only that, 'Samui Caravans' has prepared the items for those who crave for gathering and activity sessions.

'Samui Circus' is a village of circus family in Samui Island, as well as a center of live shows such as Dragon Flag show, acrobatic cudgel show, and shows with golf clubs and other items in live action.

Let's get thrilled with the view of Gulf of Thailand at 'Lad Koh Viewpoint', a rock-cliff viewpoint by the sea with Victorian-style white pavilion for the visitors to enjoy the panoramic view and to reach the skyline.

'Lamai Muay Thai Camp' is a well-known Muay Thai Camp, especially for foreign boxers, as it is the place to train champions. If you are looking for a self-defense class or an extreme exercise, Lamai Muay Thai Camp is a perfect choice to make.

'Tamarind Springs Forest Spa' where you can enjoy the nature view while having Thai yoga massage. Tamarind Springs is intended to serve the simple happiness and be a place to truly relax.

'Mahalo Kiteschool' is ready to take you to surf safely with quality surfing equipment no matter if you are new or a pro to Kitesurfing.

'Samui Health Shop' is a very first hub for those who concerned about health and well-being in Samui Island, both locals and visitors. Samui Island has been considered a perfect place to relax and to do yoga and meditation.

Food is highly considered to be an identity of Thais, and that is what 'Somrom Place' believe and insist on making this place to be a learning ground to cook Thai foods, especially Southern authentic foods.

'Samui Elephant Home' is like a home to elephants and a place for everyone to learn, feel, and live with them closely. You will be learned about elephant's habitats, how to walk them, elephant's food preparation, and how to communicate with them.

To all activity lovers, you cannot miss SUP where you will get to have fun and to enjoy the true beauty of nature. 'iSUP' has prepared a paddle board expert with over 9-year experience who is going to take you to the unseen views of Samui Island.

Samui

Hug Samui

'Hug Samui' is a local restaurant in the area with a meaning about the warmth of nature's hug through delicacy and deliciousness behind the name.

'SOL Bake•Brew•Bites'. At SOL, you will find plenty of drinks and homemade breads made from organic ingredients. SOL also has a space for artists to showcase their works here.

The genuine intention of 'Flo Coffee' is to introduce quality coffee to Samui people at its best price, as Flo believes that the quality cup of joe needs to be everyone's everyday coffee.

'Sasatorn Coffee' together with a good message from the Wisdom Message Card to pass the positive vibes to all visitors. The signature menu we recommend is Love in Vain.

From street food cart in 1991 to a small Thai rice noodle restaurant in Samui Island, the taste of 'Pa Maitri' has never changed. This is a traditional Thai rice noodle menu that has been praised by professional chefs.

Specialty Oyster is ready to be served in Samui Island. The heaven of oyster lovers here has been serving quality oyster with passion for 5 years. The concept is to make it friendly and safe for everyone to enjoy as only 'live oysters' are served here.

'Lighthouse Cafe & Wine Bar' is a café and bar nearby the port to Pangan Island and Koh Tao. They using local ingredients makes the European dish like freshly baked bagel a sense of Asian food.

'Chai's Cuisine & Farm' is an authentic Southern cuisine served in Chef's Table style. At Chai's Cuisine & Farm, you will get to taste the delicacy of fresh ingredients, local paste and spice, and a true Thai taste.

'BAAN BO RAN @ SAMUI' is a true treasure of Samui as it has kept Samui's story and history for over 186 years, which not only getting to enjoy the originality of culture and architecture, but you will also get to learn Samui's way of life.

The 'Coconut Museum' was founded by a family with a business selling coconut for over 100 years from generation to generation. Apart from selling coconut-processed products, there is a coconut workshop.